

Assumptions	Inputs	Activities	Outputs	Outcomes	Impact
Community partners facilitate the implementation of local dialogues Community partners can be organizations or individuals Dialogue participants will include populations often left out of discussions The project team provides a standardized discussion guide, with supporting resources to ensure common understanding of key concepts and to support the provision of “brave spaces” for community dialogues. Resources are designed to support and inform, and not to lead discussions to prescribed solutions Dialogue formats are determined by the community partner with support, advice from the project team, and may vary	Funding (from Environment and Climate Change Canada) Volunteer steering committee with expertise, and access to the knowledge base of their own organizations, to guide the project Experienced staff with project management, communications, coordination and technical skills to implement the project Agreements with community partners Project funding is provided to community partners to support local implementation Tools, resources and training for community partners, including a concept paper; discussion guide; communications assets; and training for facilitation and recording of dialogues	25-35 community-based dialogues Ongoing communication with community partners Promotion of the project and community dialogues Before/after surveys of dialogue participants Identifying next steps to continue local dialogues A website to connect & promote the project and community partners Mid-project progress report Final report Wrap-up with community partners Final report is shared and publicized	25 - 35 communities and partners 1,175 - 1,625 participants Representation from all provinces Evaluation of supporting resources Communications metrics Evaluation of dialogues Financial accountability (project financial statements) Key findings from the community dialogues that identify links and synergies between livelihoods, community resilience, income security, and the low-carbon transition	Community partners have the capacity, tools, resources and training to create a “brave space” to foster community dialogue The project fosters understanding among participants of key concepts as well as the links and synergies between livelihoods, income security, community resilience, and the low-carbon transition Opportunities to foster ongoing discussions of solutions are identified Findings are effectively communicated to the Federal Government Expectations described in the project agreement are met	The project builds wider and deeper understanding of the links and synergies between community resilience, livelihoods, income security, and the low-carbon transition New relationships between community partners and dialogue participants are created and fostered. Findings from the final report inform government climate and economy policy and support future projects from community organizers Momentum is built to design and implement community-based solutions to achieve 2050 goals for a low-carbon transition that demonstrates and sustains community resilience Momentum is built to design and implement a basic income policy for all Canadians